

Michael Baillif

Michael Baillif is a Principal in Ernst & Young LLP currently serving as an Associate General Counsel in the firm's General Counsel's Office. In that capacity, he represents the firm in regulatory compliance matters, contractual and settlement negotiations with clients, and, when necessary, litigation in a variety of forums.

Prior to becoming Associate General Counsel, Mr. Baillif was a Partner in Ernst & Young's National Tax Department where he provided tax consulting services to Ernst & Young's corporate clients. Before joining Ernst & Young, he practiced in the area of tax litigation at Davis Polk & Wardwell in New York City, and Miller & Chevalier in Washington, D.C.

Mr. Baillif holds a J.D. from Yale Law School and an L.L.M. in Taxation from Georgetown University Law Center where he also taught as an adjunct professor for a number of years. Subsequent to graduation from law school, he served as a law clerk to the Honorable James S. Halpern on the United States Tax Court.
